Marriages at Mentor.

NEW YORK, April 29.—The return from Europe of Harry A. Garfield, son of the late President Garfield, revives interest in a romantic double marriage, soon to be solemnized at the Garfield homestead, at Mentor, O., between Harry Garfield and Miss Belle Mason, and Miss Mollie Garfield, his sister, and J. Stanley Brown, who was secretary to the father of his prospective bride. The Garfields and Masons are related, Mrs. Garfield being a cousin of the late James Mason. The children of both families grew up together. The double marriage will be celebrated with imposing ceremonies at the little homestead in Mentor. The date of the wedding has not yet been announced. After a short bridal tour, young Garfield will form a partnership with his brother, and begin the practice of law in Cleveland. Brown it is said, will take his bride to Europe, where he will finish studies he has been pursuing in the special department at Yale.

Jo. Johnston Joins the G. A. R.

PHILADELPHIA, April 29.—Gen. Jos. E. Johnston, highest in rank of any living officer of the Confederate army, has been unanimously elected honorary member of E. D. Baker Post No. 8, G. A. R., of this city. He is the first ex-Confederate soldier who has ever been received into the ranks of a Grand Army post.

Americans at Berlin.

BERLIN, April 29.—Mr. Pendleton, American minister, will remain at Wiesbaden for some time longer. His condition is improving, and he leaves his bed daily. Carl Schurz is staying with Henry Villard in this city.

Wales' Prince Coming.

LONDON, April 29.—A report finding considerable credence is in circulation to the effect that the Prince of Wales proposes visiting America in 1889, accompanied by the Duke of Sutherland.

TELEGRAPHIC SPLINTS.

Forty-rod whisky was the cause of a stabbing affray in Red Bluff, Cal., yesterday. John Meagher and Stephen Frost were the combatants and the latter will die.

Claus Speckels, on Saturday, laid the corner stone of his new beet sugar factory at Watsonville, Cal. A large number of farmers and others witnessed the ceremonies.

In London, Tenn., on Saturday night a whole family fell upon a son-in-law, named Sam West, and shot and stabbed until he was left for dead. His recovery is impossible.

At Truckee, Cal., a special train collided with a freight train on Saturday evening. Both engines and several cars were badly smashed, and fifty feet of snowshed knocked down.

Joel Pitman, a well to do farmer, of Wingo, Kentucky, hung himself in a meat-house yesterday, through grief for the loss of his wife. He leaves a family of small children alone in the world.

The British Columbia legislature was prorogued on Saturday. Forty-six bills have been approved. One provides for the erection of two reduction works to aid the development of the quartz ledges of the Kootenai and Cariboo districts.

Robert Gordon, a twelve year old boy, met his death yesterday on a farm near Owensboro, Kentucky. He mounted a mule with which he had been plowing to ride him to the house; the animal threw him and he was dragged through briar and brush for more than a mile. The body was so mangled as to be unrecognizable.

Belle (from New York) May I come in, please? St. Peter—I don't know—you went to the theatre during Lent. Fair Gothamite—Yes, but I always took my hat off. (And the angels lifted their voices in welcoming song.—Life.

The Depot Matter.

The JOURNAL suggestions of yesterday have been well received by every body, and they have received fitting endorsement from all who ever have occasion to drive or ride to the depot. Hack and express drivers, especially, feel that the suggestion should be acted on. Business men so far as heard from fully endorse the suggestion, and feel that even this would be a great relief to the traveling public, from some of the vexations and torments that arise from the present depot facilities. The railroad company will certainly grant, that should their business greatly increase, the crossing of switches will not be any more safe than now, and the consequent delays to cabs and footmen approaching less. The depot should be placed clear of the tracks on the west, so it could be readily approached at any time by any sort of conveyance.

SUPREME COURT.

SALEM, April 30, 1888.

N. D. Gaston, appellant vs. The City of Portland, respondent. Judgment of the lower court reversed, opinion by Lord C. J.

James Poole, resp. vs. The N. P. R. R. Co. app. Judgment of the lower court affirmed, opinion by Lord C. J.

M. R. Savage, resp. vs. Clark C. McCorkle, a minor and J. E. Murphy, his guardian, apps. Appeal from Marion Co., argued and submitted. J. J. Shaw att'y for apps. N. B. Knight att'y for resp.

B. L. Hennes, app., vs. Mary C. Wells, resp. Appeal from Polk county; argued and submitted. A. L. Frazer, attorney for app.; James McChain attorney for resp.

"Beg pardon, sir," said the passenger on the front seat, turning to speak to the man on the seat behind him, "but I must have met you somewhere. Your face is strangely familiar."

"You have probably seen my portrait in most of the papers," replied the man, with the calm dignity of conscious superiority. "I am the inventor of the celebrated McSlatherson $3 shoe."

With another look at the face of the great man, the abashed questioner went off and sat on the coal-box.

"You say he committed suicide on the installment plan? How's that?" "He moved from Chicago to New York, then to Cincinnati, then, to St. Louis, where he took to drinking beer, then whisky, went to a five centing-house for his meals, and finally became a cigarette-smoker. What else could you call it?"

The "Pale Face."

This is the generic designation of the white race bestowed by our copper-colored brother, the "noble savage." The Caucasian, though many shades lighter, is not necessarily pallid. But when his cuticle has the parchment-colored tint, and his cheeks the hollowness indicative of a want of bodily stamina, he well deserves the appellation of "pale face." These facial indications should suggest a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters; an acknowledged rehabilitator of a falling strength and renewer of bodily substance. It is derived exclusively from botanic sources—is pure and efficient. Its invigorating action is prompt, thorough and speedily felt. Can the like be said of most tonics? Scarcely. Appetite, as well as the ability to satisfy it without subsequent discomfort, is renewed by it, and it effectually tones the liver and bowels. It fortifies the system against malaria and rheumatism, and remedies nervousness and kindred complaints.

Is Consumption Incurable?

Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with abscess of lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, am now on my third bottle, and able to oversee the work of my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made."

Jesse Middlewart, Deatur, Ohio says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's new discovery for consumption I would have died of lung troubles. Was given up by doctors. Am now in the best of health." Try it. Sample bottles free at H. W. Cox's drug store.

The Atlanta Constitution has the following to say on the spring style of mortgages: "Mortgages are signed by two witnesses, the same as last year, and are folded so as to fit the side coat pocket. The back taxes are combed forward and parted on the side nearest the mortgage. In this climate mortgages generally mature in the winter season."
